

SFGATE <https://www.sfgate.com/entertainment/article/All-star-sextet-joins-Claburn-for-album-release-10866237.php>

All-star sextet joins Claburn for album release concert

By David Wiegand Updated 10:04 am, Thursday, January 19, 2017

Singer/songwriter Andrea Claburn's debut album is "Nightshade."

Andrea Claburn teaches at the California Jazz Conservatory, and if she's as good a teacher as she is a singer and songwriter, her students are pretty lucky.

Claburn, a Baltimore native and academy alumna, celebrates the release of her debut album, "Nightshade," at the academy on Saturday, Jan. 21.

Claburn covers classics, such as Hoagy Carmichael's "Skylark," given what can only be called an aerial interpretation, Ellington's "Infinite Wisdom (Echoes of Heaven)" and "After You've Gone," laced with ska rhythm.

LATEST ENTERTAINMENT VIDEOS

Review: Black Panther

FOX 5's Kevin McCarthy reviews the new film, 'Black Panther.'

Now Playing

Review: Black Panther...
Fox5DC

Robbie's 'new appreciation' for figure skating...
Associated Press

Why Did Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux Split? Everything We...
People

Toy Story Land Opening This Summer at Disney World...
Entertainment Weekly

She also proves a deft interpreter of her own songs, which demonstrate an extraordinary stylistic range and deep knowledge of jazz history. She's ably backed by an ensemble of players, including Mads Tolling, John Santos, Terrence Brewer and Matt Clark, among others.

On Saturday, Claburn will be joined by Dan Fieszli on bass, drummer Alan Hall, Erik Jekabson on trumpet and flugelhorn, Santos on percussion, Brewer on guitar and Clark on piano.

— David Wiegand

Andrea Claburn: 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 21. $15. California Jazz Conservatory, 2987 Addison St., Berkeley.
<https://cjc.edu/concerts>

SFGATE Recommended For You

A Carnival cruise in the South Pacific descended into a violent mess

Rare color photos capture mid-century life in the Bay Area

You May Like

Sponsored Links

An Outrageous Card Offering 0% Interest Until 2019

Credit.com

One Man's Honest Review Of HelloFresh

Popdust for HelloFresh

Diagnose Issues Faster With Mixed Reality

Microsoft

Earn Up To 10x Miles With This Astonishing Credit Card

NextAdvisor

Scroll Jacquard Sateen Duvet Cover

$119 - cuddledown.com

Sponsored Links